

I will never buy HDTV equipment if my ability to record programming is removed. Tamper with the data stream to prevent commercial skipping, if you must, but don't take away my right to record programming for later viewing.